NADC Photography Competition – Australia Day 2023
PHOTOGRAPH / IMAGE CONSENT FORM

The National Australia Day Council Limited (ABN 76 050 300 626) (NADC) is running a photography competition as part of its Australia Day 2022 events. Eligible applicants can enter up to 3 photographsthat must be taken on 26 January 2023. The winner and State and Territory finalists (three from each jurisdiction) will be publicly announced on the NADC website at australiaday.org.au by 26 May 2023 (no later than May 31.2023).

Any winning or finalist photograph may be published on the NADC's website, and may be used and published for the purposes of marketing and promoting Australia Day and Australia Day Network Events.

Further information about the competition, including the Terms and Conditions, can be found on theNADC website at .https://australiadayphotocompetition.awardsplatform.com/

Photographs and images will be handled in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the Terms and Conditions, and the NADC's Privacy Policy published at www.australiaday.org.au/privacy/.

Part A (to be completed by competition applicant)

Applicant name:
Date and location of photograph

Brief description of photograph:

Part B (to be completed by the image subject, or their parent/guardian if under 18 years)

I grant permission and give consent to the photograph of me / my child taken by the abovenamedApplicant being:
- published on the NADC's website; and/or
- used and published by the NADC (and persons authorised by the NADC, including its contractorsand agents) for the purposes of marketing and promoting Australia Day and Australia Day Network Events, including without limitation being featured on the cover of the NADC's annual report and used in Australia Day and/or Australian of the Year exhibitions, media or other publiclyavailable materials.

Name of Image Subject (print)

Signature (if 18 years or older)   Date

Name of Parent/Guardian (print)

Signature   Date

Contact phone number or email address:

We're all part of the story.

Australia Day
Reflect. Respect. Celebrate.