Introduction

The National Australia Day Council (NADC) Community Grants Program makes grants available to support communities to hold Australia Day events designed to encourage their community to “reflect, respect, celebrate”.

The grants provided under the program are to support eligible event organisers to offer an inclusive event. Events can be a new or existing public event or activity, a community activity, or an online engagement.

The Australia Day 2024 Community Grants Program (Program) is being made available by the NADC, with the assistance of the Australian Government. The Program makes available grants of:

- $10,000 (GST exclusive), to assist eligible event organisers to ensure inclusive Australia Day 2024 events proceed (Base Grant); and
- an additional $5,000 (GST exclusive) for events that include strong recognition of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples (Additional Grant).

Australia Day is a time for all Australians to reflect, respect and celebrate. These grants are to support inclusive events that allow communities to come together and reflect, respect and celebrate the individual and collective efforts of Australians – because we’re all part of the Story of Australia.

This grant opportunity is open to:

- Australian local government entities;
- Australian state and territory government entities; and
- Australian not-for-profit organisations who received an Australia Day 2023 Community Grant from the NADC.

Applicants are encouraged to ensure their event is inclusive of all Australians, including people with disability.

The NADC encourages applicants to work together with local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander communities to create Australia Day events that are meaningful, reflective, and respectful and change the focus of Australia Day from a celebration of nationalism to a demonstration of the things we share in common and our journey as Australians. As noted above, for events that include strong recognition of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples, applicants may apply for an Additional Grant ($5,000 (GST exclusive)).

Applicants are also encouraged to support local businesses and communities through the planning and execution of the event, including through fostering creation and enabling retention of local employment opportunities.

For Australia Day 2024, NADC continues to encourage the message of Reflect. Respect. Celebrate. We're all part of the story. The NADC has created branding and design assets with this message for Australia Day 2024 (Australia Day Designs). These designs are available for use by all organisations in their Australia Day promotional collateral. Successful applicants (grant recipients) will be required to promote this message through NADC collateral. Where organisations do not have access to local printing or production facilities, grant recipients will be able to purchase items online through the Australia Day Council Aussie Merchandise program.

A total of $4.5 million (GST exclusive) is available through the Program for Australia Day 2024. Successful applicants may only receive one Base Grant, and (if applicable) one Additional Grant through the Program and there is no guarantee or assurance that an application will be successful. Applicants who have not properly acquitted a grant provided by NADC under previous Australia Day Community Grants Program (or similar) may not be eligible for funding.

The intended outcomes of this grant opportunity are to provide funding for Australia Day 2024 events that:

- enable Australia Day events/activities to proceed
- encourage community participation in Australia Day events/activities
- reflect, respect and celebrate Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples' histories and cultures
- are inclusive of all Australians, including people with disability
- create or support local employment
- promote the messaging of 'Reflect. Respect. Celebrate. We're all part of the story'.

Successful applicants will be required to have their event(s) listed on the NADC's Australia Day Event Register website.¹

What we will fund

Additional funding for events that include strong recognition of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples

In addition to the Base Grant, applicants can apply for an additional amount of $5,000 (the 'Additional Grant') to put toward any costs incurred to ensure a strong recognition of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples.

A Welcome to Country or Acknowledgment of Country would not suffice – these should already be part of all events. Applicants applying for an Additional Grant must demonstrate additional activities that reflect on and celebrate the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history in a culturally appropriate way.

The additional elements that are most appropriate for each community will differ and should be considered in consultation and collaboration with the local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander community.

Examples includes but are not limited to:

- smoking ceremonies
- cultural walks
- Indigenous foods and plants
- local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander speakers, musicians and artists
- art or crafts displays, murals and art projects
- celebration of culture through inclusion of language, music, storytelling, dance
- readings of historical documents

What we won't fund

The grant funds (i.e. the Base Grant and the Additional Grant) cannot be used for:

- core costs of the organisation undertaking the event(s); for example, salaries
- purchase of assets or infrastructure including but not limited to:
 - buildings
 - renovations or upgrades to buildings
 - barbeques
 - upgrades to parks or local facilities
- costs not clearly attributable to undertaking an Australia Day 2024 event
- events previously held by local, state or territory governments where the applicant intends to financially invest less in the planned 2024 event than it invested in the 2023 event. The grant is intended to top up the budget for the planned event, and must not be used to offset costs. Note that this requirement does not include contra and sponsorship arrangements.
- events that do not have a clear focus on Australia Day: Reflect. Respect. Celebrate. We're all part of the story.

What you need to do

Before applying, the applicant must read and understand these guidelines and the sample grant agreement. NADC may vary the grant process or documentation at any time. Any changes will be published on the online application portal.

To apply, an applicant will need to complete an online application form before the Closing Date. No late applications will be accepted.

The applicant will need to register to use NADC's online application portal.

The application form requires information about:

- the applicant, including their ABN and their address
- the planned event, including with reference to the eligibility criteria
- disability inclusion
- where the applicant is also applying for the Additional Grant of $5,000 (GST exclusive), a clear outline of the plan to acknowledge and celebrate Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander peoples
- how the grant funds are proposed to be used
- a commitment to providing high quality photographs or video of their event

In addition, the NADC requires the following with an application:

- a copy of the applicant's public liability insurance policy (certificate of currency)
- banking details, including evidence that the account is the applicant organisation's account
- for local, state or territory government applicants, written commitment that they will financially invest no less than the level of investment they made in the previously held event.

The applicant is responsible for ensuring that their application is complete and accurate.

What we will do

The NADC intends to distribute grants across the nation, including metropolitan, regional, rural and remote locations, in proportions as determined by the NADC, up to the limit of available funds.

Subject to the NADC determining the proportions in which grants will be distributed across the nation the NADC will review applications in order of application receipt, to determine whether the applicant and the intended event meet the eligibility criteria. The NADC will also check that the applicant has not already had a grant approved for this grant round.

Eligible applications will be considered successful provided:

- sufficient grant funding is available; and
- the NADC is able to meet its objective of distributing grants nationally in proportions determined by it.

An eligible applicant is not guaranteed to receive a grant due to the limited funding pool.

The NADC will decide in its discretion which applications to approve taking into account the availability of grant funds for the purposes of the Program and its national distribution objective. The NADC's decision is final in all matters. There is no appeal mechanism for decisions to approve or not approve a grant.

The NADC will use its best endeavours to notify the applicant within 20 business days of receiving the application whether or not the application is successful. If the selection process identifies unintentional errors, the applicant may be contacted to correct or explain the information. The NADC will advise applicants of the outcome of applications in writing.

The Grant Agreement

Successful applicants will be required to enter into a short-form agreement with the NADC. This will be sent to successful applicants electronically via email at the time that an applicant is notified that their application for a grant has been successful. There is no binding agreement between NADC and a successful applicant unless and until a grant agreement, if any, is entered into by the parties.

A sample grant agreement is available at Annexure A to this document.

Some aspects of the sample grant agreement include:

- a requirement that the Australia Day event utilise the message of 'Reflect, Respect, Celebrate. We're all part of the story'
- a requirement that the applicant acknowledges the NADC's support through use of the NADC's logo or signage (subject to approval by the NADC)
- acknowledgement that the NADC may list the successful applicant's Australia Day event(s) on the NADC event register website
- acknowledgement that any grants funds that are not used in accordance with the agreement will be returned to NADC
- a requirement that the applicant provide the following by 30 April 2024:
 - a final report verifying the grant funds have been spent in accordance with the grant agreement
 - photographs of the applicant's materials, showing the Australia Day Designs in a public place or at the Australia Day event or activity
 - high quality promotional photographs or video of the event depicting attendees and participants.

Payments

Successful applicants will receive 80% of their grant as an upfront payment to ensure they have funds available to cover the costs of planning for their event. The final 20% of funding will be paid following receipt of a final report, after the event has been held, confirming final costs incurred. Final reports are due by 30 April 2024. The NADC will pay the final instalment within 20 days of approving (not receiving) the final report and receiving a correctly rendered invoice.

Privacy

The information an applicant provides in their application form will be handled in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). For more information see the NADC's Privacy Policy.

In submitting an application, the applicant agrees to the NADC collecting their personal information, including name, contact details and role in order to assess the application and for the purpose of grants administration.

The NADC's online portal is powered by SmartyGrants, an enterprise of Our Community Pty Ltd. To use the portal, applicants will be asked to register and agree to Our Community's Privacy Policy and Terms of Use.

Complaints

Applicants should address any complaints regarding this grant opportunity in writing to the NADC through the Contact Officer.

Conflicts of interest

Applicants will be asked to declare, as part of their application, any perceived or existing conflicts of interest, or that, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, there is no conflict of interest.

There may be a conflict of interest, or perceived conflict of interest, if the NADC's personnel, any member of a committee or advisor, and/or the applicant, or any of their personnel:

- has a professional, commercial or personal relationship with a party who is able to influence the application selection process, such as an Australian Government officer
- has a relationship with, or interest in, an organisation which is likely to interfere with or restrict the applicant from carrying out the proposed activities fairly and independently
- has a relationship with, or interest in, an organisation from which they will receive personal gain because the organisation receives a grant under the Program.

If an applicant later identifies an actual, apparent, or perceived conflict of interest, they must inform the NADC in writing immediately.
