

AUSTRALIA DAY AMBASSADOR DECLARATION

As you are representing the Australia Day brand in your role as an Ambassador, it is important we conduct appropriate due diligence. Please note that answering “yes” to the question below does not preclude you from the Ambassador Program, it simply gives us a more thorough understanding of your story. Your responses will be treated as confidential, held with your state or territory Australia Day Council/Committee office and will only be used for purposes connected with the Australia Day Ambassador Program.

Have you ever been arrested or convicted of an offence or is there any reason why your participation could bring the Australia Day Ambassador Program into disrepute?

Yes ☐

No ☐

If yes, please provide further information to your state or territory Australia Day Council/Committee representative who will then discuss with you your suitability and as an Australia Day Ambassador. Should a criminal conviction be disclosed, a police check may be required in line with state or territory Australia Day Council/Committee policies.
